CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20505

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

24 February 1967

Mr. Benjamin F. Robinson, President
Federal Government Accountants
Association of Washington
P. O. Box 423
Washington, D. C. 20044

Dear Mr. Robinson:

STATINTL

I am pleased to nominate [redacted], Chief of the Audit Staff of this Agency in response to your invitation to us to submit a nomination for the 1967 Federal Government Accountants Award.

STATINTL

[redacted] has a record of thirty-three years of distinguished service in the Federal Government in the important field of financial management and audit systems. He has made significant contributions in this Agency's financial activities and in the development of a comprehensive, strong and flexible audit program. I believe that his creative approach to the complex problems of financial management of the Central Intelligence Agency merits public recognition beyond that which this Agency can afford him.

STATINTL

I am sure that the Committee will understand that the security considerations surrounding many of [redacted] accomplishments limit the extent to which they can be described in the enclosed document. Because of this limitation, I will be glad to designate a senior official to brief the Awards

STATINTL

Committee on [redacted] work in the Agency if more detail is desired. I wish to thank you and the Officers and Directors of the FGAA for continuing this most worthwhile program to honor outstanding contributions toward Federal financial management objectives.

Sincerely,

Richard Helms
Director
